

CLARK MONTESSORI H.S.

ERIE AVENUE

Funded by: Stomer-Anderson, Inc.

Community Partners:

Map Design: Karen Boyhen; Agriculture Education Teacher: Teresa Fadden

Trail Advisory Board: Latonya Maley (Groundworks ORV), Dustin Lindley (Backcountry Hunters & Anglers, Ohio Chapter), Mike Saylor (ODNR Division of Wildlife), Adam Moeller (University of Cincinnati, Hoffman Honors Scholars), Madz Gerker (CTE Capstone), and Cole Perry (Clark MHS).

Native Plants Working Group: Adam Moeller (University of Cincinnati, Hoffman Honors Scholars), and Cole Perry, Madz Gerker and Ajani Wilson (all Clark MHS), with Caitlin Minnick, Thess Lee-Alvarez, and Kevin Mannigan (all Clark MHS staff members).

Peace Terrace: Don Patten (volunteer, Conduit Apprenticeship Program), Luke Dunning (Urban Wilderness/Camping & Education Foundation), Brian Schwieterman (ESM RWA Architects), Randy Huber (Huber Lumber), Rose Henry (Green City Resources), Mari Fadden (consultant, renderings), Daniel Lee-Alvarez (UC-DAAP student), Holly Blackley (service hours), Jacob Townner (CMHS Intersections), Taylor Blackley, MelaKy Frazier, San'Keya Underwood, Jaylah Helton, and Elsie Coates (Senior Projects), Tracey Bresnahan and Denana Foster (inspiration).

This map is part of a series created for the Strategic Partnerships for Greener Schools led by Cynthia Walters of Green Umbrella Regional Climate Collaborative, Green & Healthy Schools Network.

The Clark Montessori High School Agriculture Education Program has been training students in the agriculture arts since 2019.

Map creation facilitated by Alan Wight. Interested in creating a storymap? Contact Alan: wightra@ucmail.uc.edu